“Bonded in Christ’s love, we teach, preach, and equip God’s people for discipleship here and throughout the world.

Palm Sunday with the Sacrament Holy Communion & Sacrament of Holy Baptism

April 13, 2025

For those who are hearing challenged, Zion has digital listening devices for your use during worship. Please ask an usher or council member for one and they will show you how to use.

Spoiler etiquette—that is, when and how it is okay to publicly talk about the details of a story not everyone may have experienced, Can we talk about surprises or plot details as soon as they are available, or do we have to wait a reasonable amount of time? A little earlier, in Luke 18”31-33, Jesus himself spoiled the crucifixion.

Processional with Palms: Luke 19:28-40

Processional Hymn – All Glory, Laud and Honor ELW 344

Refrain:

All glory, laud, and honor
to you, redeemer, king, to whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring.

1 You are the king of Israel and David's royal Son,
now in the Lord's name coming,
the King and Blessed One. [Refrain]

2 The company of angels is praising you on high;
creation and all mortals
in chorus make reply. [Refrain]

3 The multitude of pilgrims with palms before you went;
our praise and prayer and anthems
before you we present. [Refrain]

4 To you, before your passion, they sang their hymns of praise.
To you, now high exalted,
our melody we raise. [Refrain]

5 Their praises you accepted; accept the prayers we bring,
great author of all goodness,
O good and gracious King. [Refrain]

Gathering

P- Today we follow Christ from the triumphal entry to the cross, each waypoint of the journey marked by Jesus' compassion for those who would betray, mock, accuse or do violence to him.

C- Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit.

P- Though persecuted and beaten, Jesus Son of God is not disgraced; instead, he asks forgiveness for those who put him to death.

C- Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit.

P- We have walked the Lenten pathway these forty days, each of us are invited through baptism to "let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus." We enter this holy week accompanying Jesus to the cross with both grief and thanksgiving in our hearts, trusting in God's redeeming love.

C- Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit.

Confession and Forgiveness

As you are able, please stand. All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism, as pastor begins.

P- Blessed be the Holy Trinity, + one God, who writes the law on our hearts,
who draws all people together through Jesus.

C- Amen

P- Held in God's mercy, let us confess our sin in the presence of God and one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

P- Holy God,

C- we confess that we are caught in the snare of sin and cannot break free.

We hoard resources while our neighbors are hungry and cold.

We speak in ways that silence others.

We are silent when we should speak up.

We keep score in our hearts.

We let hurts grow into hatred.

For all these things and for sins you only know forgive us Lord. Amen

P- Here is a flood of grace:

Out of love for the whole world,

God draws near us,

breaks every snare of sin,

washes away our wrongs,

and restores the promise of life through + Jesus Christ.

C- Amen

Readings

Isaiah 50:4-9a

Lector – This text, the third of the four Servant Songs in Isaiah, speaks of the servant's obedience amid persecution. Though the servant has been variously understood as a prophet himself or a remnant of faithful Israel, Christians have often recognized the figure of Christ in these poems.

The Lord GOD has given me

the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word.

Morning by morning he wakens—
wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught.

The Lord GOD has opened my ear,
and I was not rebellious,
I did not turn backwards.

I gave my back to those who struck me,
and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard;

I did not hide my face
from insult and spitting.

The Lord GOD helps me;
therefore I have not been disgraced;
therefore I have set my face like flint,
and I know that I shall not be put to shame;
he who vindicates me is near.

Who will contend with me?

Let us stand up together.

Who are my adversaries?

Let them confront me.

It is the Lord GOD who helps me;

who will declare me guilty?

All of them will wear out like a garment;

the moth will eat them up. Here ends this reading.

Psalm 31:9-16 – Read responsively.

Be gracious to me, O LORD, for I am in distress;

my eye wastes away from grief,
my soul and body also.

For my life is spent with sorrow,

and my years with sighing;

my strength fails because of my misery,

and my bones waste away.

I am the scorn of all my adversaries,

a horror to my neighbors,

an object of dread to my acquaintances;

those who see me in the street flee from me.

I have passed out of mind like one who is dead;

I have become like a broken vessel.

For I hear the whispering of many—terror all around!—

as they scheme together against me,

as they plot to take my life.

But I trust in you, O LORD;

I say, “You are my God.”

My times are in your hand;

deliver me from the hand of my enemies and persecutors.

Let your face shine upon your servant;

save me in your steadfast love.

Philippians 2:5-11

Lector – Paul quotes from an early Christian hymn that describes Jesus' humble obedience in his carnation as a human being, even to death, and his exaltation and glory as Lord of all. Paul writes to the Church in Philippi:

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God
as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.
And being found in human form,
he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death—
even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name
that is above every name,
so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Here ends this reading.

Prayer of the Day

As you are able, please stand.

P- Everlasting God,

C- in your endless love for the human race you sent our Lord Jesus Christ to take our nature and to suffer death on the cross. In your mercy enable us to share in his obedience to your will and in the glorious victory of his resurrection, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever, amen.

Gospel – Luke 23:1-49

Due to the length of this gospel reading, please remain seated.

Jesus before Pilate

Then the assembly rose as a body and brought Jesus before Pilate. They began to accuse him, saying, “We found this man perverting our nation, forbidding us to pay taxes to the emperor, and saying that he himself is the Messiah, a king.” Then Pilate asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?” He answered, “You say so.” Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, “I find no basis for an accusation against this man.” But they were insistent and said, “He stirs up the people by teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee where he began even to this place.”

Congregational Hymn – Were You There? Verse 1

1 Were you there when they crucified my Lord?

Were you there when they crucified my Lord?

Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.

Were you there when they crucified my Lord?

Jesus before Herod

When Pilate heard this, he asked whether the man was a Galilean. And when he learned that he was under Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent him off to Herod, who was himself in Jerusalem at that time. When Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad, for he had been wanting to see him for a long time, because he had heard about him and was hoping to see him perform some sign. He questioned him at some length, but Jesus gave him no answer. The chief priests and the scribes stood by, vehemently accusing him. Even Herod with his soldiers treated him with contempt and mocked him; then he put an elegant robe on him, and sent him back to Pilate. That same day Herod and Pilate became friends with each other; before this they had been enemies.

Congregational Hymn – Were You There? Verse 2

2 Were you there when they nailed him to the tree?

Were you there when they nailed him to the tree?

Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.

Were you there when they nailed him to the tree?

Jesus Sentenced to Death

Pilate then called together the chief priests, the leaders, and the people, and said to them, “You brought me this man as one who was perverting the people; and here I have examined him in your presence and have not found this man guilty of any of your charges against him. Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us. Indeed, he has done nothing to deserve death. I will therefore have him flogged and release him.”

Then they all shouted out together, “Away with this fellow! Release Barabbas for us!” (This was a man who had been put in prison for an insurrection that had taken place in the city, and for murder.) Pilate, wanting to release Jesus, addressed them again; but they kept shouting, “Crucify, crucify him!” A third time he said to them, “Why, what evil has he done? I have found in him no ground for the sentence of death; I will therefore have him flogged and then release him.” But they kept urgently demanding with loud shouts that he should be crucified; and their voices prevailed. So Pilate gave his verdict that their demand should be granted. He released the man they asked for, the one who had been put in prison for insurrection and murder, and he handed Jesus over as they wished.

Congregational Hymn – Were You There? Verse 3

3 Were you there when they pierced him in the side?

Were you there when they pierced him in the side?

Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.

Were you there when they pierced him in the side?

The Crucifixion of Jesus

As they led him away, they seized a man, Simon of Cyrene, who was coming from the country, and they laid the cross on him, and made him carry it behind Jesus. A great number of the people followed him, and among them were women who were beating their breasts and wailing for him. But Jesus turned to them and said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. For the days are surely coming when they will say, ‘Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.’ Then they will begin to say to the mountains, ‘Fall on us’; and to the hills, ‘Cover us.’ For if they do this when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?”

Two others also, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with him. When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. [[ Then Jesus said, ‘Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.’]] And they cast lots to divide his clothing. And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, ‘He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!' The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, 'If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!' There was also an inscription over him, 'This is the King of the Jews.'

One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, 'Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!' But the other rebuked him, saying, 'Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong.' Then he said, 'Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.' He replied, 'Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.'

Congregational Hymn – Were You There? Verse 4

4 Were you there when the sun refused to shine?

Were you there when the sun refused to shine?

Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.

Were you there when the sun refused to shine?

The Death of Jesus

It was now about noon, and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon, while the sun's light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two. Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit." Having said this, he breathed his last. When the centurion saw what had taken place, he praised God and said, "Certainly this man was innocent." And when all the crowds who had gathered there for this spectacle saw what had taken place, they returned home, beating their breasts. But all his acquaintances, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

Congregational Hymn – Were You There? Verse 5

5 Were you there when they laid him in the tomb?

Were you there when they laid him in the tomb?

Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.

Were you there when they laid him in the tomb?

The Gospel of the Lord.

C- Praise to you, O Lord! Please be seated.

Message – God's Joke

Offering Hymn – Borning Cry

ELW 732

1 "I was there to hear your borning cry,
I'll be there when you are old.

I rejoiced the day you were baptized
to see your life unfold.

I was there when you were but a child,
with a faith to suit you well;
in a blaze of light you wandered off to find where demons dwell."

2 "When you heard the wonder of the Word

I was there to cheer you on;
you were raised to praise the living Lord,
to whom you now belong.

If you find someone to share your time and you join your hearts as one,

I'll be there to make your verses rhyme
from dusk till rising sun."

3 "In the middle ages of your life, not too old, no longer young,
I'll be there to guide you through the night,
complete what I've begun.
When the evening gently closes in and you shut your weary eyes, I'll be there as I have always been,
with just one more surprise."

4 "I was there to hear your borning cry,
I'll be there when you are old.
I rejoiced the day you were baptized
to see your life unfold."

Offering Prayer

As you are able, please stand.

P- Jesus you are the bread of life

C- Bless these gifts that we have gathered that all people may know your goodness.

Feed us not only with this holy food but with a hunger for justice and peace.

We pray this in your name.

Amen

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
is seated at the right hand of the Father, and will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Amen

Prayers of the Church – When the pastor says, “Lord in your mercy” please respond with “hear our prayer!”

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

First Communion News.....

Austin, Ava, Brixton, Bryleigh, Caleb, Debreigh, Devyn, Ellis, Jace, Macy, Mason and Tanden

These young people have been meeting the past few weeks on Wednesday evenings to prepare for their First Communion that will take place on Maundy Thursday. During these sessions they have been learning about God's unending love and sacrifices made for each one of them. We have discussed the two sacraments of Holy Baptism and Holy Communion. How each of these sacraments are God showing his love "For Us". They have been studying how to prepare their hearts and minds each time they are blessed in partaking of this communion meal by understanding the significance behind the Bread and Wine, the Body and Blood of our Savior. May this life-giving Bread always feed your soul and nourish your spirit. May you always know the peace of Jesus, the light of his love, and the joy of his life within you. ~Karla Carstens

SERVING OPPORTUNITY...The Warren's Community Dinner Table ministry has operated for more than 20 years; it is being hosted by Christ Church Episcopal but has quickly become a Gage County area ministry. The demand and need for these meals are steadily increasing with the challenges of individuals and families in our area. Warrens Community Dinner table is very thankful for the organizations who currently are serving but are in need for a more to join the schedule. If you know of a group or organization that would consider serving at any capacity, please contact Barb Smethers at 402-806-1667 or email by bjsmethers@yahoo.com. (At this time Zion commits to one date in September to serve, organized by our women's ministry with the help of volunteer donations and a Thrivent grant, if another group is interested in organizing a meal your efforts are welcomed)

Did you know some of Zion's Choirs made albums? We will feature one song from each of the three albums over the next couple weeks. Alnora Daubendick has provided some commentary on the albums. We welcome comments or memories.

Young People's Choir

This album was recorded in about 1961, under the direction of John Ehmen. Members of the Young People's Choir were confirmed young people and single young people working in area around Zion, and college students home on weekends. Pastor Arden Dorn does a solo verse; he had started Dana College and was home for the summer. At that time, students got confirmed when they were sophomores in high school. Practice was weekly on Monday evenings, and the choir sang approximately once a month during a service. When the confirmation age changed and school activities involved more time, practice times were difficult. The Young People's Choir was discontinued in the mid 1960's.
