A Mother’s Day Message and Prayer for you from Pastor Renae

May rises with the fire of holy women; mothers and grandmothers who are fierce in love, steady in truth, and as strong as prairie wind. We honor them as bold, life-shaping forces; storytellers, protectors, and life-teachers who have carried and challenged us, This is sacred work, and it lives on in every woman who mothers with courage and love.

Loving God, we give thanks for mothers of strength and spirit. Even now, you are filling them with endurance, surrounding them with support, and renewing their joy. Bless our mom’s and grandma’s who are still living here on earth, or with you in heaven. Amen.

Celebrating God's Work in Progress-Old Business

- Special guest Chris Mason was here to present business on the boiler system-Our boiler system is in need of being replaced in the near future and Chris Mason had a plan on how to pursue it. A temple talk will be made to address the boiler system on the 19th of April.
- Special guest Michele Kolm was here to address copier contracts- Our copier contracts will expire in June and we will need to decide on a plan for both of our copiers (church office and parish hall). We decided the black and white copier will probably continue to be our preferred option at this time. We also talked about the Subsplash app for web hosting for our church. It would fill a need for a lot of the additional copies that are currently made now. We have not committed to the Subsplash contract as of yet, but are still working to determine the correct avenue to take for a web presence.
- The Council would like to thank everyone that helped with Spring Cleanup!
- 5th Sunday Offering for August- will be directed to the ballpark board and November will still wait to be determined.

Discerning God's Will – NEW Business

- Paul Jurgens was steering a project to find a projector and screen for the front of the church to use during services. $7,800 was the amount quoted for the screen and the projector, with an additional amount for the cabinet. The memorial committee was to fund this project.
- Dennis Remmers gave an update on the call committee. One individual has shown interest in our church.
- July 19th - Arden Dorn will substitute preach for us.
- June changes Church schedule time- the first Sunday in June Church will be starting at 9am
