

Zion Lutheran Church Mission Statement

“Bonded in Christ’s love, we teach, preach, and equip God’s people for discipleship here and throughout the world.”

Endless Hallelujah Contemporary Worship Service Christ the King Sunday Twenty-Fourth Sunday
after Pentecost with a Thanksgiving Theme November 20, 2022

For those who are hearing challenged, Zion has digital listening devices for your use during worship. Please ask an usher or council member for one and they will show you how to use it.

Prelude – Bell

Every gathering for worship has elements of thanksgiving. When we are nourished with God’s bounty in Holy Communion, when we partake of Jesus’ word that gives life to the world, and even when two or three of us simply join our hearts in prayer to make our requests known to God, we do so “with thanksgiving.” Let us give thanks to God, who is good and whose mercy endures forever.

Gathering

P- Jeremiah’s promise of the execution of “justice and righteousness in the land” finds ironic fulfillment in the execution of Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews.

C- Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Mark 11:9a

P- It appears utterly contradictory that a king should be crucified with a criminal. This victory appears for all the world as humiliating defeat. Yet through the gate of death Jesus opens the door to paradise.

Gathering Song – One of These Days

Chorus

One of these days
I'm gonna see the hand
That took the nails for me
One of these days
I'm gonna hold the key
To the mansion built for me
One of these days
I'm gonna walk the streets of gold
That were paved for me
One of these days
I'm gonna see my Savior face to face
One of these days

Verse 1

One of these days I'm gonna fly
Over the mountain
One of these days I'm gonna ride
On the silver lining
One of these days I'm gonna witness
All I've been missing
One of these days (chorus)

Verse 2

One of these days I'm gonna see
Just what became of me
On the day that I believed
When You took myself from me
And I believe I will say What I would have been
If You didn't save me
One of these days (chorus 2x)

Confession & Forgiveness

As you are able, please stand. All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism, as pastor begins.

P- Blessed be the Holy Trinity, + one God,
who redeems us in Christ,
whose steadfast love endures forever.

C- Amen

P- Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and one another.
Silence is kept for reflection.

P- Most merciful God,

C- we confess that we have sinned against you and our neighbors.

We have ignored voices that call for your justice.

We have neglected actions that witness to your righteousness.

We have spoken and acted in ways that disrupt your beloved community.

We truly repent of the things we have done and left undone.

For the sake of Jesus Christ, have mercy on us.

Restore our troubled spirits,
so that we may live in newness,
follow the way of the Spirit,
and build up the body of Christ. Amen

P- Rejoice and be glad!

God hears the prayers of all who cry out, and restores us to life through death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Therefore, I declare to you the forgiveness of all your sins,
in the name of the Father,
and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C- Amen

Readings

Jeremiah 23:1-6

Lector— Today's reading builds on a common, ancient Near Eastern metaphor of the king as shepherd. Judah's unjust rulers have caused their people, their "flock," to be scattered. Nevertheless, God will raise up a new and righteous shepherd who will rule a restored Judah.

Restoration after Exile

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the LORD. Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the LORD. Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the LORD.

The Righteous Branch of David

The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: "The LORD is our righteousness." Here ends this reading.

Psalm 46 – God’s Defense of His City and People

Read responsively.

God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.

Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change, though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea;
though its waters roar and foam,
though the mountains tremble with its tumult.

There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy habitation of the Most High.

God is in the midst of the city; it shall not be moved;
God will help it when the morning dawns.

The nations are in an uproar, the kingdoms totter;
he utters his voice, the earth melts.

The LORD of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Come, behold the works of the LORD;
see what desolations he has brought on the earth.

He makes wars cease to the end of the earth;
he breaks the bow, and shatters the spear;
he burns the shields with fire.

“Be still, and know that I am God!
I am exalted among the nations,
I am exalted in the earth.”

The LORD of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Colossians 1:11-20

Lector – An early Christian hymn praises the mystery of the political, personal, and mystical Christ, the one who is present at creation and is eternally reigning with God. Paul writes to the Colossian church:

May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

The Supremacy of Christ

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross. Here ends this reading.

Prayer of the Day

As you are able, please stand.

P- Almighty God our Father,

C- your generous goodness comes to us new every day. By the work of your Spirit lead us to acknowledge your goodness, give thanks for your benefits, serve you with willing obedience, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen

Gospel – Luke 23:33-43

P- Amid scoffing and slander from those who sarcastically call him Messiah and King. Jesus reveals that to be Messiah and King is to give one's life for others. Here he uses his power to welcome a despised criminal to paradise but puts his own death into God's hands.

When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. [[Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing."]] And they cast lots to divide his clothing. And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!" The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" There was also an inscription over him, "This is the King of the Jews."

One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!" But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." [Jesus] replied, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."
The Gospel of the Lord.

C- Praise to you, O Lord! Please be seated.

Message – Christ the King

America's HOPE...NOT in the donkey...NOR in the elephant, but in the Lamb of God! What makes Christ the King? Every church is in mission and ministry to one of these kings. Which king are we serving? The king of the world or the King who is called the Lamb of God?

Offering Song – Step By Step

O God You are my God
And I will ever praise You
O God You are my God
And I will ever praise You

I will seek You in the morning
And I will learn to walk in Your ways
And step by step You'll lead me
And I will follow You all of my days (repeat)

Offering Prayer

As you are able, please stand.

P- Blessed are you, Maker of all things.

C- As you have entrusted us with all that you created, now gather our gifts, nourish with your Word and Sacrament, and send us to those who hunger and thirst, for the sake of Jesus Christ. Amen

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light,

true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;

he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,

who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,

and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the Church – *When the pastor says, “Lord in your mercy” please by singing, “O Lord, hear our prayer we offer up to you; O Lord hear our prayer!”

Words of Institution - Song of Consecration

Please join in singing the final verse in bold print.

The night of his betrayal, our Lord took bread.
He broke it as he blest it, and then he said,
“My body broken for you...is what this means;
remember now my children what you have seen!”

And then he took the chalice and raised it high,
“My blood is given for you, a full supply... a covenant, a promise...a cleansing stream;
remember now my children what you have seen!”

We share this food together, remem’bring Christ:
we share a common treasure and know the price;
we share it without measure...a gift of love;
we share our life forever, with God above!

Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

Invitation to Communion

Communion Songs - ROUND THE TABLE

Chorus

Come together round the table
Come and taste the wonder
A healing touch and a deep connection
From the living center of it all

Seeking meaning on the run you try and save the day
But all is ready will you come? Love invites the way. (chorus)

Bring a friend or enemy or one you hold or blame
With each other we are one Here in Jesus name) (chorus)

Hear creation groan for life. Will Hate and hunger cease?
In the roar of violence the world cries for peace. (chorus)

Road To Zion

Verse 1

There is a way that leads to life
The few that find it never die
Past mountain peaks
Graced white with snow
The way goes brighter as it goes

There is a road inside of you
Inside of me there is one too
No stumbling pilgrim in the dark
The road to Zion's in your heart
The road to Zion's in your heart

Verse 2

The river runs beside the road
Its waters living as they flow
In liquid voice the water calls
On thirsty knees the pilgrim falls

There is a road inside of you
Inside of me there is one too
No stumbling pilgrim in the dark
The road to Zion's in your heart
The road to Zion's in your heart

VERSE 3

Sometimes it's good to look back down
We've come so far
We've gained such ground
But joy is not in where we've been Joy is who's waiting at the end

There is a road inside of you
Inside of me there is one too
No stumbling pilgrim in the dark
The road to Zion's in your heart
The road to Zion's in your heart

Prayer after Holy Communion

P- We give you thanks, most gracious God,
C- that you have fed us bread of heaven and give us a foretaste of Paradise.
Enliven us to be your body in this world and to serve those who are in need;
through Christ our Lord. Amen

It's that time of year again when we are usually planning the "Ingathering" for Mid November. We will not be delivering a brown paper bag with a yellow flyer on it at your front door. Instead, we ask that you fill a brown or plastic bag with food or personal items and bring it to the Food Pantry between November 1st and the end of the year. We are calling this out "Ingathering" for 2022. We rely on this food to get us thru the Winter and into Spring. Monetary Gifts are welcome and appreciated. Monetary gifts are used to purchase potatoes, bread, margarine and eggs and other staples. Thanks for your support of the Community Foods Pantry!
